See Emerald's Dr. Schultz on NBC-TV Discuss Smokable Medical Marijuana

Greetings!

When an NBC-TV reporter wants to know about medical marijuana, who do they interview?

Our own Dr. Carl Schultz who discussed smokable medical marijuana on the news!

Although Dr. Schultz advises his patients to try other methods first, he observes that some patients receive the best relief from smoking medical marijuana. Note that Florida law requires completion of an informed consent form between physician and patient prior to patients' purchasing smokable medical marijuana at a dispensary.

We look forward to helping you on your journey to greater well-being.

Sincerely,

Watch Emerald's Dr. Carl Schultz on NBC-TV about smokable marijuana's benefits.

Since smokable medical marijuana has become legal in Florida, the Florida Board of Medicine has continued to tweak the new bill. Most recently, the Board has agreed to change its rules to allow doctors to certify that the benefits of smokable marijuana outweigh the risks. See our own Dr. Carl Schultz discussing the issue on NBC-TV.
